Preserve: The PCT itself promotes a healthy lifestyle that for	ocuses on outdoor opportunities that connect people to nature and so does the I	PCTA's_extensive volunteer program. Every year long stretches of the PCT are of	destroyed by fire, washed out by rain, or made impassable by overgrown brush - and it	is the volunteers who keep the Trail open, safe and passable for countless others t	co_enjoy
Partnerships and volunteers are the mainstay of this 2650-mil	e National Scenic Trail.
In 2009, more than 76,000 hours of volunteer support were do	onated from more than 30 different partnering groups working on the PCT. The in-kind v	value of these volunteer hours is more than $1,550,000.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~
Prior to 2004, the PCT was maintained by individuals who orga	nized their own projects. While they were enthusiastic and hard-working, ofte	n they lacked proper training and tools. With the 2004 launch of the current PCTA	Trail Operations Program, the volunteers are now more effectively managed, tra	ined, and equipped. As of 2009, the PCTA's professional Trail Operations staff (incl	uding a Trail Operations Director, five Regional Representatives, five Associate Regional	nal Representatives and two Volunteer Program staff) now covers 2,300 miles of the Tr	ail. These Regional Representatives work in the field and serve as the "eyes and	ears" of the Trail at the local level. They work with the government partners to ef	fectively build and manage the volunteer program. Along with the Volunteer Progra	m_staff, the PCTA's Regional Representatives work with established groups, form n	ew local clubs, and bring in groups from all over the United States to preserve t	he PCT as a treasured national resource.

In the fall of 2009, the PCTA opened a fifth regional office in Seattle to coordinate trail programs in the North Cascades region in Washington. This new position covers the PCT from White Pass, Washington to Manning Park, British Columbia in Canada.

With the help of its Regional Representatives, the PCTA continues to expand its volunteer cadre. In 2006, 558 volunteers reported hours; in 2007 the number grew to 899, in 2008 the PCTA had 1036 volunteers and in 2009 PCTA reached a new record of 1,393 volunteers. Without the efforts of these dedicated volunteers, the PCTA would not be able to accomplish its mission to protect, preserve and promote the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail.

Promote: As part of its public service, the	PCTA devotes a considerable amount of time and resources to promoting the PCT for	its intended use as a hiker and equestrian trail. This is accomplished through	gh the following activities.
PCTA Store - From guide-books and how-to vid	eos, to journals and coffee mugs, the PCTA online store carries PCT information an	d PCT promotional items. Store items are also available at various PCT-related events	. The PCTA wholesales merchandise to a few USFS visitor centers, National Park Serv	ice visitor centers and other retail outlets.
Map Brochures - In partnership with the PCTA	, the U.S. Forest Service has developed the Official PCT Map & Guide. This guide is	updated regularly and widely distributed to visitor centers, ranger stations and reta	il outlets in the vicinity of the Trail.
PCT Map Series - The U.S. Forest Service is	currently working on a comprehensive series of 10 maps covering the entire Pacifi	Crest Trail. These maps are entirely functional for route finding and trip planni	ng, and also feature informative text explaining and highlighting special features	of the trail's environs including key geologic and cultural features, facts about	flora and fauna, and more. The PCTA is working in partnership with the Forest Servi	ce on this important map series, providing the Forest Service with editorial	and consulting services. As of the end of 2009, eight out of ten maps have been comp	nleted and are available for cale at the Web Site - The PCTA maintains an informative web site at www.pcta.org. The site

Protect: Although the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail was officially designated "complete" in 1993, the legacy is not. While the Trail is contiguous, much of the corridor still needs permanent protection. The Trail traverses three states, three National Monuments, five State Parks, seven National Parks, 25 National Forests, 34

Corporation and Conservancy to relocate 37 miles of trail from along dirt roads on the Mojave Desert floor to the crest of the Tehachapi Mountains in keeping with the original vision for the PCT. This new trail location will provide a more nature-oriented landscape for trail users through a corridor of unsurpassed ecological importance where four major ecosystems meet. The PCT will connect the Angeles National Forest, the BLM, the 178,000-acre Tejon Ranch Conservancy and additional private lands. PCTA and USFS staff have spent more than five years studying maps, scouting new trail locations and meeting with Tejon Ranch representatives on potential route options.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments (continued)
In March of 2009, the PCTA learned of a Land Use Permit Applic	eation on private lands in Jackson County, Oregon, that threatened the natural landsca	ape of the PCT. The Bean Rock parcel is an 80 acre parcel containing approximately	a quarter mile of PCT
within the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument and abuts the newly designated Soda Mountain Wilderness. Additionally, this parcel was identified	in the PCTA's Land
Inventory as a tract needed to protect the legacy of the PCT.	The PCTA submitted comments to the County opposing the building permit proposal f	or a 'summer home' on the property that would have been constructed within 500 feet	of the PCT in an undeveloped area of the National Monument. Due to the concerns	raised by the PCTA and other non-governmental organizations, Jackson County denie	d the landowner's permit request for development as well as his appeal. The PCTA	is beginning preliminary talks with the BLM and the landowner on the possib	ility of acquiring a conservation easement on the land to preserve the landscape fo	r future generations.
In 2009 Terra-Gen Wind Energy Company proposed building severa	l new wind turbines in Southern California which would impact the Trail. Terra-Gen pr	oposed a relocation of the Trail for mitigation. USFS, PCTA and Terra-Gen staff scout	ed the proposed relocation of the Trail and determined that portions of it wer	e buildable while others were not. Terra-Gen then went on to hire a contractor f	rom California State
Parks to survey the land, lay a center line, and create trail	logs for an improved trail location. He completed his work in early December 2009 a	nd construction of the relocation is expected to take place in 2010.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE

Section 1.0 - The name of this organization shall be the Pacific Crest Trail Association (PCTA).

Section 1.1 - Pacific Crest Trail Association is a membership organization formed as a nonprofit public benefit corporation under the laws of the State of California and recognized as a charitable and educational organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)3.

Section 1.2 - The Pacific Crest Trail Association is established to support users of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail and to assure that there is a continuous recreation facility, managed so as to reflect its national significance, for the enjoyment, education and adventure of hikers and equestrians. The PCTA promotes the management, maintenance, conservation and safe public use of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail. It protects and defends the trail from improper use, abuse, and commercial or private encroachment. It provides information to help people enjoy the trail. It encourages good trail ethics, safe travel practices and appreciative awareness of the trail as a valued national heritage.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERS

Section 2.0 - The PCTA membership shall consist of individuals, associations; clubs; organizations, including local units and chapters; and land owners whose lands the trail traverses; which are current in dues payment and which support the purposes of PCTA and meet any requirements established by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.1 - the Board shall establish classes of membership and dues for each class.

Section 2.2 - Privileges of membership shall generally include the right to vote on the election of Directors and on other matters submitted to the membership by the Board of Directors. For voting purposes, each individual member shall have one vote and each member group shall have one vote. Nonvoting classifications of membership may be established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III - MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERSHIP

Section 3.0 - An annual membership meeting shall be held each year, normally in March, April or May, for the purpose of certifying the election of directors, presenting an annual report to the members and conducting any other business which may be necessary.

- Section 3.1 A special membership meeting may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, or by the Chair with the approval of the Executive Committee, or on written request signed by 5% of the membership.
- Section 3.2 Notice of the meeting place, day and hour shall be mailed to the membership at least twenty days prior to the meeting date. Notice in the principal publication of PCTA is a proper and qualifying means of notification. In case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting was called shall be stated in the notice.
- Section 3.3 A quorum shall consist of 25 members or 2% of the membership in good standing, whichever is the lesser. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of members, a majority of members present may adjourn the meeting.
- Section 3.4 Each member shall have one vote, which may be cast in person or by mail, or if the matter is considered at a meeting of Members, in person, but not by proxy; provided, however, Section 4.3 shall control for purposes of electing Directors. Only members in good standing may vote. Members in good standing are those who are current on dues payments. The vote of a group member shall be cast by the governing body of the group or its duly authorized representative.
- Section 3.5 Any member may be removed from membership by action of the Board of Directors for conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association. Any member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary.
- Section 3.6 Any motion or resolution to be submitted to a vote of the Membership at any annual or special meeting, or other matter or action to be taken by vote of the Members at any such meeting, shall be either adopted by the Board of Directors and ordered submitted to a vote of Members at the next meeting of Members, or submitted in writing to the Executive Director or the Chair of the Association at least forty five (45) days prior to the meeting. Otherwise any such motion, resolution, matter or action shall be out of order and any vote thereon shall be invalid.

ARTICLE IV - DIRECTORS

Section 4.0 - Subject to limitations of the Articles and these Bylaws, the activities and affairs of the corporation and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may delegate the management of the activities of the corporation to any person or persons, or committees however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board. Directors shall be responsible for establishing policy and providing direction for the Association.

Section 4.1

- 4.1.1 The number of directors shall be not less than twelve nor more than forty-five, as established by resolution of the Board of Directors. Directors shall be elected by a ballot mailed to each member in good standing.
 - 4.1.2 Each director shall be elected by a vote of the qualified members for a three-year term, the term to commence immediately upon election. A director may serve for a maximum of three elected terms.

- 4.1.3 Directors must be individual members of the Association at the time of their nomination and during their term of office.
- Section 4.2 A majority of the directors elected and serving shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board; but if less than a quorum is present, the majority of the directors present or available may adjourn the meeting.
- Section 4.3 Election of directors by the Membership shall be by mail, but votes may not be by proxy. A majority or plurality of votes cast shall determine election. Each member shall be entitled to one vote, but if the Membership stands in two or more names, if one votes, that is the vote, otherwise the majority so voting binds all. Entitlement to vote as a Member shall be subject to other provisions of these Bylaws, including Section 3.4. Voting for the election of directors shall be by written ballot mailed to all Members entitled to vote at the particular election. Such ballots shall be mailed at least forty-five (45) days prior to the date set for the election, and shall be counted only if duly signed and received by the Association no later than 7 days before the date of the election. A committee appointed by the Chair, shall count the ballots and certify the results to the annual Membership meeting and such meeting shall be deemed the date for the election of Directors for all purposes of these Bylaws and applicable law.
- Section 4.4 Nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a nominating committee appointed by the Chair, which committee shall be subject to confirmation or change by action of the Board. Further nominations may be made by petition signed by not less than the following number of Members of the Association.
 - If there are less than 5000 Members eligible to vote at the election in question, by at least 2% of the number of Members so eligible;
 - If there are 5000 or more Members eligible to vote at the election in question, by at least 1/20th of one percent of the number of Members so eligible, but not less than 100 nor more than 500 Members shall be required.
 - All nominations and petitions for nominations must be delivered in writing to the Secretary or the Chair before nominations are closed. Nominations shall be closed ninety (90) days prior to the date set for the election of directors.
- Section 4.5 Each nominee for the Board of Directors shall be entitled to have published in the Communicator (or other official publication of the Association) mailed to all Members, last published prior to the date of the election, a statement of the nominee's qualifications and the reasons for the nominee's candidacy. Such statement must be furnished to the editor of the Communicator (or such other official publication) by the deadline set by the Editor for submission of articles for publication in that issue. Such statement shall be of a length of not more than 1/3rd of a page of the publication when printed in the type style and size utilized for regular articles in that issue of the publication. The Editor of the publication shall be entitled to eliminate any content of any such statement, which the Editor finds is untrue or defamatory.
- Section 4.6 Further, upon written request by any such nominee, and the payment with such request of the reasonable costs of mailing (including postage), the Association shall within 10 business days after such request and payment mail to all Members, or such portion of them as reasonably specified by the nominee, any materials furnished by the nominee which is reasonably related to the election, or alternatively, the Association may allow the nominee the right to inspect and copy the record of all Members' names and addresses, or alternatively the Association my give the nominee an alphabetized list of the names and addresses of the Members entitled to vote at the election.

Section 4.7 - The record date for establishing Members entitled to nominate persons for election to the Board shall be thirty (30) days prior to the date nominations are closed. The record date for establishing Members to whom mailings may be made pursuant to Sections 4.5 and 4.6 above, and for establishing Members entitled to vote for the election of directors, shall be sixty (60) days prior to the date of the meeting for the election of directors.

Section 4.8 - Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Chair, Executive Director or Secretary.

Section 4.9 - Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board. The Board Development Committee shall make recommendations to the Board of Directors. New directors may be appointed to fill vacant positions by the Board of Directors. However, directors so appointed must stand for election by the qualified members at the next regularly scheduled election of directors. Vacant positions include all open positions, for whatever reason, up to the maximum number of directors established by board resolution.

Section 4.10 - A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held within seven days after each annual meeting of members. Other regular meetings shall be scheduled by the Board of Directors, but notice thereof shall be given to all Directors at least twenty days prior to any such meeting, and to all newly elected Directors no later than ten days following his or her election.

Section 4.11 - Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Executive Committee or by one-third of the Directors. Appropriate notice of any special meeting shall be given at least ten days in advance of the meeting to each member of the Board of Directors to that member's address, phone, FAX, or electronic means, as shown by the records of the Association.

Section 4.12 - Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of Directors, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of Directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by all of the Directors.

Section 4.13 - Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services, but by resolution of the Board a fixed sum and/or expenses of attendance at meetings may be allowed. Reimbursement of other proper expenditures incurred in connection with performance of Association business may be allowed, but requires prior approval of the Chair.

ARTICLE V - OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS

Section 5.1 - Officers.

The officers of the Association shall be a Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time elect. The positions of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by one person.

Section 5.2 - Term of Office.

Officers and committee chairs shall serve one-year terms and until their successors are elected or appointed; however, any such officers or chairs shall be subject to removal at any time by action of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.3 - Employees and agents.

The Board may appoint or hire an Executive Director as it deems necessary, and the Executive Director shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may, to the extent allowed by law, delegate to the Executive Director any powers possessed by the Board, and may prescribe his or her title, term of office, authorities and duties. The Executive Director may be removed with or without cause by majority vote of the Board.

Section 5.4 - Chair of the Board: Powers and Duties

The Chair shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, of the Members, and of the Executive Committee. The Chair shall appoint and remove Board committee chairs at the Chair's discretion, subject to confirmation of such action by the Board. The Chair is authorized to execute in the name of the PCTA all contracts and other documents authorized either generally or specifically by the Board to be executed by the PCTA, except when by law the signature of the Executive Director is required.

Section 5.5 - Vice Chair of the Board

The Vice Chair shall, in the absence of the Chair, or in the event of his or her inability or refusal to act, perform all the duties of the Chair, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions on, the Chair.

Section 5.6 - Executive Director

The chief executive officer of the PCTA shall be the Executive Director. Subject to the control of the Board of Directors, the Executive Director shall supervise and conduct the activities and operations of the PCTA, shall keep the Board of Directors fully informed and shall freely consult with them concerning the activities of the PCTA, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect. Where appropriate, the Board of Directors shall place the Executive Director under a contract of employment. The Executive Director shall be empowered to act, speak for, or otherwise represent the PCTA between meetings of the Board. The Executive Director shall be responsible for the hiring and firing of all personnel, and shall be responsible for keeping the Board informed at all times of staff performance and for implementing any personnel policies adopted by the Board. The Executive Director is authorized to contract, receive, deposit, disburse, and account for funds of the PCTA; to execute in the name of the PCTA all contracts and other documents authorized either generally or specifically by the Board to be executed by the PCTA; and to negotiate all material business transactions of the PCTA.

Section 5.7 - Secretary

The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping minutes of all meeting of the Board and Members, maintaining the minute books of the Association, and performing such other tasks that are assigned to the Secretary by the Board or designated by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or applicable law.

Section 5.8 - Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept full and accurate accounts of all Association financial records, assets, receipts and disbursements. The Treasurer shall ensure the deposit of all money, evidence of indebtedness, and other valuable documents in the name and to the credit of the Association. The Treasurer will provide for an annual statement of accounts, and periodic reports as required by the Board or applicable law.

ARTICLE VI - COMMITTEES

Section 6.1 - Executive Committee.

The Executive committee of the Board of Directors shall consist of the Chair and up to four other members of the Board. In addition, the Executive Director of the Association shall be an Ex-Officio member of the Executive Committee, but without a vote unless also an elected and serving Director. The Executive Committee shall be appointed by action of the Board, the Chair being entitled to make non-binding recommendation to the Board for Executive Committee membership. The Chair shall act as chair of the Executive Committee. Subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Article V, the Executive Committee may exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Association between meetings of the Board. The Executive Committee shall, at each regular meeting of the Board of Directors; make a full report of all business transacted by the committee since the last such report to the Board.

Section 6.2 - Other Committees Appointed by the Board

The Board may, by a majority vote, from time to time establish other committees for conducting the work of the Association The committees shall include at least one member of the Board of Directors and shall exercise such powers as may be delegated to the Committee by the Board, subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Article V. Every such Committee shall be chaired by a member of the Board of Directors.

Section 6.3 - Other Committees Appointed by the Chair.

The Chair may, subject to the control of the Board, appoint special committees for specific purposes not in the purview of the Executive Committee or committees appointed by the Board.

Section 6.4. - Limitations on the Powers of Committees.

Neither the Executive Committee nor any other committee shall have the authority to:

- (a) Approve any action for which the approval of the Members or approval of a majority of all Members is required;
- (b) Fill vacancies on the Board or on any Committee which has the authority of the Board;
- (c) Fix compensation of directors for serving on the board or on any Committee;
- (d) Amend or repeal any Bylaws or adopt any new Bylaws;
- (e) Amend or repeal any resolution of the Board which by its express terms in not so amendable or repealable:

- (f) Appoint any Committee of the Board of the members thereof;
- (g) Authorize the expenditure of Association funds to support a nominee for director after there are more people nominated for director that can be elected;
- (h) Approve any self-dealing transaction except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation law Public Benefit Corporations, or any substituted legislation.

ARTICLE VII - ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCES

- Section 7.2 The fiscal year of the Association shall be January 1 through December 31.
- Section 7.3 PCTA shall keep correct and complete books and records of accounts in a businesslike manner. It shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings, boards, councils and committees. All books and records of the Association may be inspected by any member or his or her agent or attorney for any purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a member and at any reasonable time.
- Section 7.4 An annual budget of estimated income and expense shall be adopted by the Board of Directors before the beginning of each fiscal year. It shall be the responsibility of the Treasurer, in consultation with the Finance Committee, to provide the Board of Directors with a recommended budget. The Board of Directors may revise the budget as necessary during the fiscal year. The Executive Committee shall review the actual expenses as compared with budgeted expense on a quarterly basis.
- Section 7.5 The rules of procedure at meetings of the Board of Directors, any committees, or any meetings of the members shall be the rules contained in Roberts' Rules of Order Revised, so far as applicable and when not inconsistent with these bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or with any resolution of the Board of Directors.
- Section 7.6 These bylaws may be amended or repealed by a majority vote of the then serving members of the Board of Directors. Members may request Board consideration of a bylaw amendment by submitting a petition signed by not less than 5% of the members of good standing. Notification of all proposed bylaw amendments shall be mailed to the members of the Board of Directors at least ten days before the meeting at which the proposed bylaw amendments will be considered.
- Section 7.7 The term "meetings" as used in these bylaws for the Board of Directors or its committees shall include two-way communication of all participating by conference telephone calls or other electronic means as well as traditional assembly.
- Section 7.8 Notification under these bylaws is deemed given when mailed; provided, however, notice to Directors shall also be deemed effective when given by electronic transmission in accordance with applicable California law.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 8.0 - The PCTA shall indemnify all present and former directors and officers against any liability, including expense and advance of expenses, arising out of the performance of their duties. This indemnification shall apply to any actual or threatened civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding. PCTA may maintain insurance to protect itself, any director, officer, or employee against any such liability, cost or expense incurred in connection with any such suit, action or proceeding. PCTA shall have the right to approve any settlements or legal expenses incurred in connection with any such suit, action or proceeding. The indemnification shall be to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law.
