

Volunteer Job Description Trail Information Data Collector

Seeking 1-3 hikers to photograph trailheads and access points along lengthy sections of the PCT, hundreds of miles or more. People who are thru-hiking the PCT in 2025 are great candidates for this project as they will be able to visit many data collection points.

PCTA is in the process of publishing a robust database of information about the Pacific Crest Trail for internal and external audiences. This volunteer position will collect photographs and accompanying information about trailheads and access points on the PCT. The majority of these data and photos will be published to PCTA's website for the benefit of the public, though some may only end up in our manager's dataset.

Duties/requirements

- This volunteer will perform their duties at PCT trailheads and access points, taking a series of photos of each
- Fill in attribute forms about trailhead facilities
- Work within PCTA GIS app system
- Participate in trail information / GIS training
- At data collection spots, spend a few minutes to evaluate the area and photograph it.
- Post-trip, help ensure collected data is captured correctly in PCTA's GIS system and be available for discussions with PCTA staff
- Agreement with PCTA's Photography Terms of Use (see below)

Time commitment

- Pre-trip training and coordination – 4 hours
- During the snow-free portion of 2025, gather data on hundreds of trailheads and access points. We anticipate that each data collection spot may take about ten minutes to photograph.
- Post-trip coordination and discussion – 4 hours

Qualifications:

- Able to travel and work independently and visit hundreds of trailheads and access points
- Own a compatible personal smartphone, willing to load with the relevant apps
- Comfortable with data collection on smartphone
- Prompt communicator by email and phone

PCTA staff supervisors

How to get involved

1. Email staff supervisors expressing your interest, include a short note about your PCT plans in 2025 and attach a sample of some photography that is relevant to this project. We suggest going out in your town and taking some photos of a parking lot. What would you show? What information is important to convey through these photos?
2. Complete PCTA's volunteer application, select "Other" and enter Trail Information.

Photography Terms of Use

Photos/video uploaded are considered licensed to the Pacific Crest Trail Association in perpetuity. By submitting photos/video you are giving the PCTA the right to use your photos/video as we see fit to promote the trail and its protection.
